

Heaven In Business – South Jersey

February 16, 2019

This month's Heaven In Business South Jersey Meeting was amazingly encouraging! We heard so many amazing workplace testimonies of healing, salvation, favor, provision and boldness! Each member came ready to encourage and uplift each other. We encourage you to not only continue sharing your testimonies with us, but also with those around you. Your testimonies are powerful and they are changing people!

The lesson this week came from a blog post by Heaven in Business, "Oh No! I'm Under a Tack!" By Blake Schellenberg (the link for the full blog is included below). We talked about how sometimes we think we are being attacked by the enemy, however a lot of it is our own self talk and old thought process. The blog gives practical steps you can take to walk away and no longer be "under the tack." We discussed the examples and scripture given in the blog and ways we can apply it in our lives.

The challenge for the next two months is to pick your triumphant bible verse. One that really speaks and encourages your heart. Once you find the verse memorize it and come ready to share you verse in April. We can't wait to hear!

Love & God's Blessings,

Denise Santore
