

Heaven In Business – South Jersey

October 20, 2018

This month in our meeting we continued to dive into bringing the five languages of appreciation to our workplaces. We gave testimonies of how we were learning our co-workers' language of appreciation and becoming more purposeful with those we encounter at work based on their language of appreciation.

We discussed how each language of appreciation can have a dialect. That if someone enjoys tangible gifts, that not every gift they receive will speak to them the same. We were encouraged to observe our coworkers, employees, and supervisors this month. Ask them questions and to continue to seek out their language of appreciation and dialects. Learn how to honor them in a way they can receive. When we learn to honor and appreciate those around us we show them the love of Jesus!

Love & God's Blessings,
